

Charity Parachute Jump

Stuart James, twenty three years old from Caldew Street Silloth raised £519.50 in aid of mentally handicapped children.

Stuart raised the money by taking part in a sponsored 11,000 feet parachute jump at Cockersands near Garstang.

Many thanks go to all those who supported him.

Pensioners Outing

Silloth Rotary Club regrets, due to unexpected entrance fees (including the grounds) and no available concessions, the pensioners outing which was to include Muncaster Castle has had to be amended.

The pensioners outing will take place on the advertised date but will now be a mystery tour, to include a stop at a place of interest, followed by a visit to the Port and attractions of Whitehaven.

On the return journey, the coaches will stop at the White Heather Hotel, Kirkbride for the usual excellent evening meal.
