

Coronation Celebration 1952

This group is a coronation celebration party for the children of the workers on the Silloth aerodrome in 1952. I am Beverley Brogden (nee Hill) sat next to Kim the dog and my sister Sylvia, next to me. My eldest sister, Dorothy, is on the second row from the back, sixth on the left. The legend was that Kim saved his masters life (Mr Pittenrigg) by keeping him warm when he was stranded all night in his fishing boat. He was quite a character.

These photos are also from the 1950's showing the co-op and the interior of Porters Sweet Shop. Many thanks to Beverley Brogden for sharing these memories.

We Need a Creche in Silloth

Silloth is losing out on important training events and courses as well as other activities because we haven't got a creche in the town!

We want to do something about this and are calling a meeting of all those who might be interested in getting a creche facility here.

The meeting will be held in the Golf Hotel at 7pm.
Wednesday 12th June 2002. If you would like to find out more please come along to the meeting.

Please complete the slip below and hand it in to
The Golf Hotel, or to Emma Bell or Susan Walsh.
