Blencogo Wine Circle

Report by: Stuart Jones

Our September Meeting was a new event on our calendar, "Bring a non-alcoholic drink with an unusual glass".

Thirteen members attended with three apologies.

A thank you card from Janet Stukins was passed round, thanking the Circle for the gift given to her after her recent operation. The Solway Buzz had sent a draw prize, which will be put into our Christmas Dinner raffle.

Graham and Janet were congratulated for organising our three, very enjoyable, summer outings and Community Bus driver/member, Terry, was presented with a gift in appreciation of his driving skill. The outings were self supporting, with a small profit.

The Christmas Dinner was discussed at some length, to be discussed further at the October meeting, when we will be having our annual Red Wine Tasting.

Thanks to Stella for the nibbles and organising the draw. This month there were two prizes donated by Linda and Ron, a neighbour of Janet and Graham. These were won by Stella and Janet.

Chairman Bill Henderson brought the meeting to a close at 9pm. Our next meeting will be at 7:30pm on Wednesday 9th October.

Cumbria Needs Firefighters

Cumbria County Council's Fire and Rescue Service is launching a new recruitment drive to find additional on-call firefighters to serve their communities.

On-call firefighters are needed to join crews at 32 fire stations across the county.

Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service (CFRS) is recruiting on-call firefighters needed at the following stations:

West - Workington, Whitehaven, Aspatria, Cockermouth, Egremont, Maryport, Seascale, Silloth and Wigton.

South - Barrow, Bootle, Broughton, Coniston, Millom, Ulverston, Walney, Kendal, Ambleside, Appleby, Arnsdale, Kirkby Stephen, Milnthorpe, Sedbergh, Shap, Staveley and Windermere.

East - Alston, Brampton, Lazonby, Longtown and Patterdale

Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service is looking for men and women from all walks of life and all ages who can work as part of a team and are prepared to commit to the role. Qualifications aren't necessary, applicants must be at least 18 when their contract starts and be physically and medically fit.

On-call or retained firefighters are 'on call' to respond to a range of emergencies. They can still have another job until the call comes, then they become a professional firefighter. Call-out rates and workloads vary across the stations.

To apply people will need to complete an application form, carry out nationally recognised fitness and practical tests, and complete an interview and medical check.

Cumbria's Chief Fire Officer, Steve Healey said: "On-call firefighters play a crucial role in our communities and are called upon to attend the full range of incidents, from fires and floods, to road traffic collisions and chemical spills. I would urge people living and working in the areas where we're recruiting to consider applying to become part of the Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service team."

Cllr Janet Willis, Cumbria County Council's Cabinet Member for Fire and Rescue, said: "On-call Firefighters are an integral part of our service and community. We are keen to encourage anyone who thinks they may have the right skills to find out what they can offer - and in return, what we can offer you."

On-call Firefighters come from every walk of life, including homemakers, shopkeepers, builders, farmers, office workers and directors of companies, together with people who are not currently employed. Full training is provided on an ongoing basis, therefore previous experience is not needed.

An on-call Firefighter could be called out two or three times a week, for a few hours at a time but at some quieter fire stations they may only be called once or twice each month. The on-call hours are based around people's availability and other commitments.

To be an On-call Firefighter, you must:

Have a strong desire to support the local community.

Be enthusiastic about working as part of a team.

Have a reasonable level of personal fitness.

Live or/and work within 5 minutes of your local fire station.

Cumbria currently has approx. 370 on call firefighters based all over the county.

Chimney Fire Safety Awareness

Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service (CFRS) is calling for improved chimney fire safety awareness following recent incidents involving chimney fires in the county.

Chimney fires in England typically account for over 4,000 incidents dealt with by fire and rescue services each year. CFRS is calling on homeowners to clean up their act and get their chimneys swept by an approved sweep to prevent chimney damage, and, in worse cases, household fires.

Ed Burrows, Watch Manager for Prevention at Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service, says there are steps homeowners can take to prevent and protect their property: "To keep you and your family safe from fire you should make sure you have your chimney swept regularly, depending on what fuel you burn, before the colder months set in and you begin to use your fire again. To make the most of your wood burning stove, ensure you are using quality wood fuel, maintain your appliance and chimney regularly and check you are using your appliance in accordance with the manufacturers' instructions.

The HETAS website has a range of useful tips to help you get the best performance from your stove.

People wouldn't think twice about getting their car MOT'd, but home appliances often get neglected. It might not be on the top of everyone's to-do lists, but you really can't afford to risk leaving these things unattended."

Ed also stresses the importance for homes to have carbon monoxide detectors fitted for those that have open fires, wood burning stoves and gas appliances.

"Carbon monoxide is known as the silent killer, you can't see it, you can't taste it, but it is a killer if left undetected. Please do purchase a CO alarm to keep your loved ones safe. Many detectors are now available for less than £10."

For more information on maintaining your chimney and how can help with fire prevention, please visit: www.chimneyfiresafetyweek.co.uk. For information on how to get the best performance from your stove, visit www.hetas.co.uk

Silloth Raises the Red Ensign

In 2018, Seafarers UK's campaign to raise public awareness of our island nation's ongoing dependence on Merchant Navy seafarers saw more than 800 Red Ensigns being flown ashore on Merchant Navy Day, 3rd September.

On Silloth Green, Deputy Mayor Graham Wilkinson raised the Ensign to mark the week-long celebrations taking place nationally in support of the brave men and women of the Merchant Navy, who kept our island nation afloat during both World Wars, and to celebrate our dependence on modern day merchant seafarers who are responsible for 95% of the UK's imports.

As a seafaring town Silloth-on-Solway is proud to be one of the 800 towns participating in recognising Merchant Navy Day.

Across the UK all community, parish, town, city, district, borough and county councils – along with larger local and unitary authorities – were invited to get involved by hoisting the UK Merchant Navy's official flag on civic buildings and in public places.

All participating councils, individuals and historic buildings listed on a 'Roll of Honour' will be sent a Commemorative Certificate as a token of thanks from Seafarers UK.

Slime Raises £220

Over the summer nine year old Charli Johnstone raised £220 in aid of Bowel Cancer UK by selling homemade Slime at her 'Charli and the Slime Factory Stall' during the events held on Silloth Green.

She had the idea after her sister Lucy and a group of friends decided to run the Great North Run in aid of the charity as it is a cause very close to their hearts.

Charli would like to thank everyone who donated by buying

Slime, giving donations, or through the Just Giving page.

Make a Will Month

Making a will can be expensive and as a result many of us constantly put it to the bottom of our 'to do' list.

This October you can have a professionally written will made in exchange for a donation to West Cumbria Carers. This will result in peace of mind for your future and the knowledge that you are supporting young and adult carers in the local area.

We are only able to offer this opportunity thanks to the kind generosity of the solicitors involved:

Burnetts, 3c Lakeland Business Park, Lamplugh Road, Cockermouth, CA13 0QT - Tel: 01900 510366

Cartmell Shepherd, Sutton House, Dovenby Hall Estate, Dovenby, Cockermouth, CA13

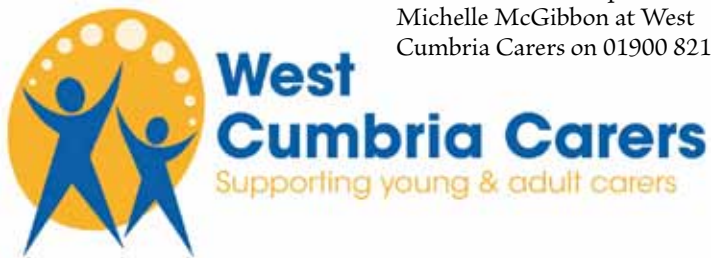

OPN - Tel: 01900 876123

The amount you donate is at your discretion however the suggested donation is £130 for one will or £150 for a joint will. This is significantly lower than the amount you would normally be charged for this service.

There are a limited number of appointments available so call the solicitors office to book your appointment today. Don't forget to mention 'West Cumbria Carers' when booking.

If you have questions about Make a Will month please contact Michelle McGibbon at West Cumbria Carers on 01900 821976.

Fun at Community Barbecue

Report by: Lawrence Marshall

The community barbecue and fun day was held in Christ Church and in the grounds on Saturday 7th September to coincide with the Beer Festival.

There was a very good attendance which was helped by the fine sunny day. The bouncy castle was very popular and also face painting lady Hayley Wisbey was kept busy all day and did a wonderful job.

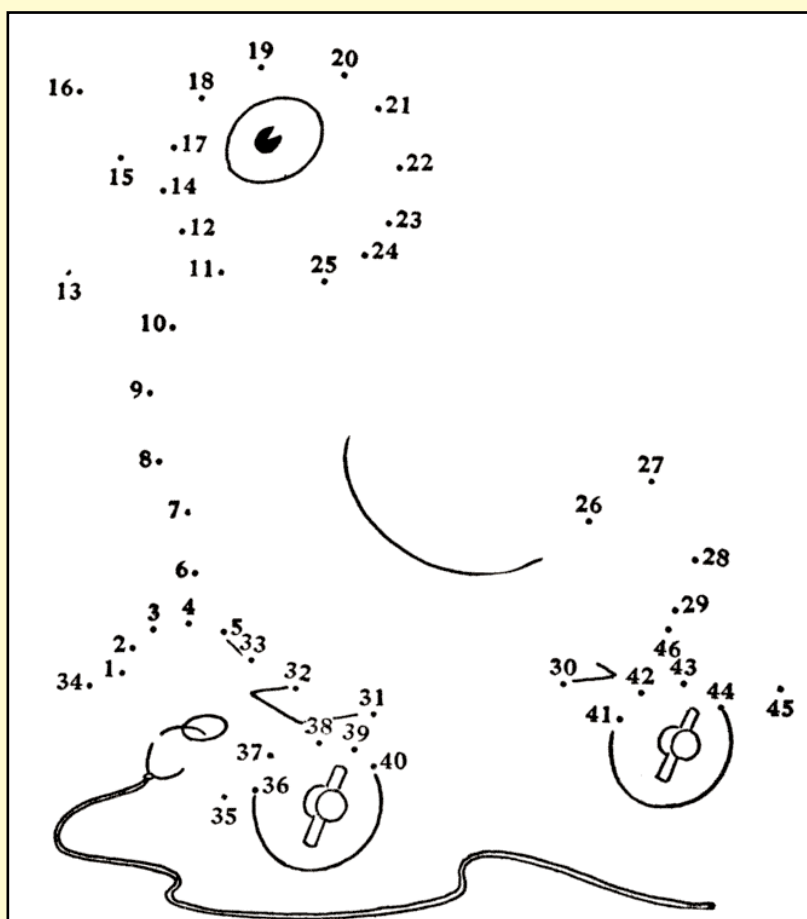

Drinks, biscuits and barbecued food were available throughout the day.

There was no charge at this event as it was a Community funded event. Grateful thanks to all who assisted in any way and for ensuring we had a successful event

Thank you to everyone who attended, took part and have supported your Carnival this year.

We would also like to thank Stanwix Park for kindly printing our programme. This year we used the programme as a lottery ticket. All monies raised went to Cash for Kids – this was a great success and we donated £500 to this great cause. Our winner still hasn't come forward for the £100 prize, the winning programme number was: 545. Was it you??

Thank you to The Silloth Music & Beer Festival for donating the two Weekend Tickets.

The winner for this year's Window display was again the Fairy Dust Emporium with "A Tribute to the Lifeboat RNLI" – well done Vicky and Team, it was fantastic!

We are holding the following fundraiser:

Save the Date for Loretta & Slimming World

BEFORE

A slimmer who transformed her life by losing almost 2½ stone is using her success to shape her career, helping other people change their lives and achieve their weight loss dreams too.

After the life changing experience of losing her Dad and realising life is too short, Loretta Thompson moved to Silloth a year ago, to fulfil her dream of living by the sea!

Having been a Consultant before she moved, she knew that when she started regaining weight the best place for her, was her local Slimming World group. She knew when she rejoined she would be in for a warm welcome and the friendly Silloth group did not disappoint! She joined them in July and they have helped support and motivate her to lose a stone. This takes her total loss to 2 stone 5lbs, getting her back to her target weight.

Now, she has retrained as a Consultant for Slimming World, the UK's largest group-based weight loss organisation, at their national training academy in Derbyshire.

Loretta says "Before joining Slimming World, I used to dread social occasions, always feeling very conscious about my size. I would try to avoid group gatherings feeling like I was out of place and if a camera appeared, I disappeared! Slimming World has given me my confidence back. Support is really the most important thing. It all starts with feeling that you're not alone. I couldn't have reached my target without the weekly help, encouragement and understanding of my own Consultant and group. Setting targets, sharing recipes and other ideas, and working together as a group to overcome challenges and celebrate success is important to a successful journey. That's why, at my Slimming World group, there will be tons of support, encouragement and fun."

"Like a lot of slimmers, I had tried to lose weight so many times before by following numerous diets but they were never sustainable because I'd always get tired of restricting what I ate. I thought I was destined to struggle with my weight for the rest of my life, but when I came to Slimming World it was different. I never felt like I was on a diet. The eating plan encourages you to eat lots of tasty, filling food like pasta, rice, potatoes and lean meat and fish, you are never hungry and no foods are banned so there's no deprivation. I couldn't believe I'd found a way to lose weight without starving!"

"Slimming World isn't just about changing what you eat. Becoming more active is important too. Our Body Magic programme takes the threat out of activity by showing people how they can build activity into their daily routine without having to take up traditional forms of exercise like the gym or running. Everything counts from walking to gardening to washing the car. I love to walk and I also enjoy cycling and canoeing. As a Consultant it's my role to create a warm, supportive atmosphere to get people sharing their ideas and experiences to help others – it's going to be great fun (with no lycra in sight)!"

Denise Broughton who runs Slimming World's Wigton Groups and manages Loretta as a Team Developer, says "Slimming World Consultants are chosen for their positive outlook and because they genuinely care about the health and happiness of others. With Loretta's experience of being a successful Slimming World Member and her kind and warm personality and great sense of humour I just know that she will be an amazing support to members, cheering them all the way to their target weight."

Loretta's Slimming World group will be held at the Rugby Club in Silloth every Saturday at 9am from the 23rd November. For more information or to join Loretta's group ether pop along or call her on 07766 118556.

Letters

Dear Buzz,

The miracle on Stanwix corner is not quite of biblical proportions but a result at last.

On Tuesday 4th of September low and behold a suction drainage vehicle appeared along with a few drainage rods, brute force, and the main component ignorance. VOILA! The flood has disappeared, for how long I do not know?

Surely you should not have to be a perpetual whinger for months before any action takes place. I would estimate the job took about a morning to complete. It is more by luck than good management that no accidents have occurred.

What impression do visitors get of our town when you are met by floods on both main roads, the one outside the airfield entrance is nearly as bad and we are not into winter yet.

Should the head of Cumbria Highways Department not be invited to explain what is going on and what the departments plan for the other issues going on in the town are? Most of us do actually pay Community Charge.

Your perpetual moan

Parking
by Penny Stimson

Parking cars in Silloth is the funniest I've ever seen, they don't worry about wardens for they are never seen.

*Some park two a breast
others, well anywhere.
Parking is a free for all but beware if you dare.*

*Popping into the Co-op
I parked on double yellow lines, put up my disabled badge
of a warden there was no sign.*

*I only wanted a loaf of bread,
would be a minute or two.
But when I came out well I just knew.*

*There stood a warden ticket in hand,
"I've got my badge up" I said
"But you have not put up your clock"
he said, I thought him rather sad.*

*So I had a £30 fine
to pay for a loaf of bread.
And Silloth still park anyhow
but of the warden you should dread!*

The Tortoise and the Hare
by Penny Stimson

*Why was the Tortoise faster than the Hare.
Did he not realise
someone was really there.*

*Did the Hare stop to have a little sleep
thinking he and the Tortoise were never going to meet.*

The Tortoise was very slow and the Hare very fast, but what a shock he had when he came in last.

And slowly the Tortoise went over the winning line and the Hare just trotted in thinking he had lots of time.

*No one was more surprised than that slow Tortoise runner against the Hare he had no hope
He thought he was a goner!!!*

Silloth Lifeboat Kept Busy

Reports by: Julie Emary
Silloth RNLI Press Officer

Stricken rib near Powfoot

Silloth lifeboat was called out at 16:25 on Saturday 3 August, to assist with the recovery of a rib with one person on board, whose engine had failed near Powfoot, Scotland. The tide was ebbing very quickly and there was little time for the lifeboat to get up to the Scottish coast whilst there was still enough water for the lifeboat to reach the stricken vessel and tow her safely back to Annan.

The lifeboat made good time up to the vicinity of the rib but the water was receding so quickly, they were not able to go directly to the boat but had to try to weave their way in-between the sandbanks, trying to find channels deep enough to take even the shallow depth of hull of the Atlantic 85 lifeboat. The lifeboat had to negotiate the shallowest of waters, the lowest Spring tides, the constantly shifting landscape of sandbanks in the Solway Firth, in their search to find a way through. They had to travel miles out of their way just to find enough water to reach the casualty. In some places the sandbanks are so high, that although the lifeboat was very close to the rib, they could not see it, nor could the lifeboat's radar pick up the exact position of the boat.

The casualty vessel was asked to let off a hand held flare in order that the crew could pinpoint the boat, which it did, but due to the weather conditions that were so benign at the time, the smoke from the flares instead of going up into the air, just hung over the sea and was horizontal rather than vertical. With the height of the sandbanks, this meant that the smoke was not visible to the lifeboat crew.

The vessel was in contact with the lifeboat, the Coastguard and the boathouse at all times. It had dropped anchor but was not being held sufficiently to stop it drifting. The skipper is an experienced sailor and at no time was he in danger. Several more flares were deployed, one of which was seen by the lifeboat but by this time they were unable to reach the rib.

By 23:45 the lifeboat was able to make their way again, they hastened towards the stricken vessel but although there was more water this time, it was pitch black. The sandbanks still caused a huge problem as there were several hours to go before high tide and the lifeboat had to wend its way backwards and forwards towards the casualty. Radio contact was resumed and eventually each boat could see each others lights. The lifeboat reached the rib at 00:43 (Sunday 4 August) when they were able to ascertain that the casualty was safe and well. A tow rope was made fast to the rib and the lifeboat began to tow it back to Annan. Finding a safe route through the mouth of the river, with no landmarks or pointers to guide or help them in any way, was very tricky in the darkness, Silloth lifeboat however successfully navigated the river and the rib was tied up to the quayside at Annan.

The lifeboat was then able to proceed back to the boathouse at Silloth and then was made ready for further service by 02:50 am.

Swimmers at West Beach, Silloth

On a hot Bank Holiday Sunday 25th August, Silloth RNLI lifeboat was called out to three people seemingly in distress in the sea at West Beach, Silloth, near Tommy Legs.

The boat launched within five minutes after being alerted to the suspected casualties.

The RNLI lifeboat had been informed about the swimmers, by a member of the public, who witnessed their seeming difficulties and had phoned the lifeboat station.

The lifeboat was quickly on the scene, as well as two members of the Shore crew who drove round to the West Beach to see if they could assist. Two lifeboat crew swam to the shore from the boat, after ascertaining that the three people thought to be in distress had made it safely back to the beach.

The lifeboat was stood down twenty five minutes after being launched and returned to the boathouse, all suspected casualties being safe and well.

Should you see anything that may concern you regarding any suspected casualties or incidents at sea, it is always better to dial 999 and ask for the Coastguard.

Jet Ski in Difficulty

On Sunday 25th August Silloth RNLI lifeboat was called out to attend a jet skier who had fallen off his craft and was having difficulty in climbing back on.

The casualty was only a few hundred yards from the lifeboat station, where the jet ski had launched from, so within a few minutes the lifeboat was in attendance.

Murder & Mayhem

Report by: Jennifer Bailey

What a very busy day on the 28th August. After visiting a friend in Wigton, I headed for Carlisle to attend a book signing given by the crime author Val McDermid, creator of the characters "Dr. Tony Hill" and "Detective Carol Jordan" of the "Wire In The Blood" TV series.

The evening was a joy, it was my first experience of a book signing evening and I was enthralled as Miss McDermid was interviewed for half an hour on the subject of her extremely successful career. She described how her ideas were formulated and the research involved in the process of writing, including spending time with police officers, psychologists and forensic scientists.

I was lucky enough to get a chance to ask Miss McDermid how, in the light of some of the types of equipment used in her stories to do unmentionable things to her hapless victims, did she ever manage to sleep at night with such ideas racing around in her head! Her answer was very good natured and humorous.

At the time of the actual book signing there formed a very long queue, so we sat and waited until the very end of the queue came into sight, then we joined on the end.

I'd heard of the book signing whilst at an art workshop held in Kitty's Cafe and Bar. The proprietor of Bookends book shop was also at the workshop and the book festival was mentioned. The event which was part of Borderlines Carlisle Book Festival 2019, was held in The Crown and Mitre Hotel in the centre of Carlisle and had been organised by, among others, Bookends. Not having been aware that there existed a Book Festival in Carlisle each year, I was amazed to read of the forthcoming events planned for this year, many of which I shall be very interested to attend, I've already made a note of the dates to go and see Hunter Davies and Ann Cleeves!

By this time the casualty had managed to climb aboard the jet ski but was unable to restart his craft. The lifeboat was able to tow the jet ski back to the slipway where it was successfully recovered.

All safe and well.

Stricken Jet Ski at West Beach

On Sunday 8th September at 12:10, Silloth RNLI lifeboat was called out to a broken down jet ski, just South of Silloth pier by the West Beach. The lifeboat had just returned to the boathouse after the usual Sunday morning exercise, when the call came in to help the stricken vessel. The lifeboat was returned to the water and made its way quickly to the casualty, who was unable to re start the jet ski.

It was a calm day with an ebbing tide. Maryport Coastguard was also involved in the incident.

Silloth RNLI lifeboat was able to secure the jet ski to the side of the boat and took the casualty and the jet ski back to the slipway by the boathouse, where it was successfully recovered from the sea.

With the jet ski safely returned, the lifeboat was washed down and made ready for service again.

Sea Hunter Visits Silloth

Report & Photos by:
John Forrester
More coverage of shipping at Silloth can be found at www.cumbriashipphotos.weebly.com

Summer afternoons can bring an unexpected sight for new visitors to West Beach. The appearance of a cargo vessel sailing close by in front of them can cause sun worshippers to sit up and take notice. Heads turn as they watch the ship come to a halt off the port and perform a pirouette in preparation to enter the dock at high water. Armed with their mobiles, some gather for a closer look and film the ship as it makes the tricky manoeuvre towards the calmer waters of the dock. A recent example was SEA HUNTER which arrived on a glorious afternoon from La Pallice, a port on the French Atlantic coast. The ship, fully laden with wheat, had taken three days to reach Silloth via the English Channel and Irish Sea. Although registered in the Barbados capital of Bridgetown, the ship is British owned and operates in European waters. SEA HUNTER attracted attention with onlookers enquiring about where the ship had come from and its cargo. Such close access to a passing ship must be an unexpected bonus for new visitors to the town and provide a notable memory for landlubbers. Perhaps when they look back through their holiday snaps a new interest in shipping may be sparked.

The ship was soon manoeuvring alongside her berth in readiness to begin unloading. Twenty four hours later she was ready to depart for Teesport, which is an unusual destination for ships leaving Silloth as it involves the long sailing around the north of Scotland with no payload. Passers-by may have been lucky enough to catch the ship's departure, however observers get very little notice of a ship's movement before it is speeding through the dock entrance and away into the Solway. The next port of call would be Workington anchorage to allow the pilot to disembark before setting off in a northerly direction.

August Shipping at the Port of Silloth

Report by: Capt Tim Riley, Harbour Master, Short Sea Pilot August

1st Ayress from Ardrihaig with a cargo of Logs then on to Ardcastle.
3rd Sea Hunter from La Pallice with a cargo of Wheat then on to Teesport.
7th Zapadnyy from Zeebrugge with a cargo of Molasses then on to Klaipeda.
17th Fluvius Axe from Rouen with a cargo of fertiliser then on to Belfast.
19th Germanica Hav from Vierow with a cargo of Wheat then on to Belfast.
28th Wilson Limerick from Klaipeda with a cargo of Fertiliser then on to Corpach.
28th Bardera Segundo from Inverness to carry out ploughing in the dock.
Another good month for the port of Silloth.
The ever present Zapadnyy was back early in August, followed closely by Sea Hunter with Wheat for the Mill, Ayress brought us more logs too, all in the first week of August!
Sea Lady, one of Tommy Nicholson's Trawlers has been in port having a refit, new brake linings on all their winches and some engine overhauls as well.

Three more cargoes of Fertiliser and a German Wheat all pushed our monthly total cargo to over 16,000 tonnes, which is very good for us.

The Bardera Segundo arrived to carry out some ploughing in the dock to try to reduce the overall level in the dock, this was not successful, although they have cut a slot through the middle of the dock which allows the vessels to at least get inside.

Unfortunately on Friday the 30th around 22:30 the tide was pretty rough and has dislodged our north dock gate and the hinge pin has dropped into the dock, behind the gate. We are arranging cranes and engineers to recover the hinge pin after lifting the gate clear, we hope to be able to recover the pin from the sluice pits, repair/upgrade it and then put it back in place.

All being well, this could be completed within the month of September.

It looks like September is beginning well too with one ship already having been in port and three more currently scheduled.

Blencogo & District Produce Show 2019

Report by: Judith & Linda Wood

The Produce Show took place on Saturday 7th September.

As the doors opened on a lovely early autumn day the Village Hall soon became a buzz of activity as entrants arrived laden with colourful produce carefully displayed and delicious home cooked items. The children's works of art were proudly put in the right class and the results were eagerly awaited.

Over lunchtime the judges pondered and deliberated over the offerings in front of them and the results were compiled. In the afternoon as the doors reopened the competitors returned to see how they had done. There was talk of how the weather had conspired against the gardeners and entries were definitely low but the hall looked lovely and there was a lot of talent on display. The outcomes there for all to see.

To finish the day off there was a good humoured auction of the produce kindly run by Adrian Cozens.

Total income from the event was £ 918.80

Less expenses of £351.17

Total profit for hall and playground funds £567.63

A pleasing total for hall funds but only possible with the generous support of all the competitors, judges and participants of the show as well as Bromfield PC for financial support and to the "staff" who worked so hard to make the day a success.

Elvis in Silloth

Report by: Sue Calvert

An Elvis Night was held in St Andrews Hall on Friday 13th September. Elvis was definitely in the building and it rocked thanks to Bailey and Kream (Steve and Andrea).

A huge thanks to everyone who came and enjoyed the evening, we had an age range from 9 (Jersey) to 95 (Irene).

Many thanks to Steve and Andrea who made the evening rock.

New investment from The FA secures long-term future of Silloth A.F.C.

- Silloth A.F.C awarded £750 Stay in the Game grant
- Investment will boost the retention of adult male footballers

Silloth A.F.C has been awarded a grant from The FA's Stay in the Game scheme to help aid the club's retention of its adult male players, giving them the financial support to cover the costs incurred by grassroots clubs.

The Stay in the Game scheme is funded by The FA and delivered by the Football Foundation, with grants of £750 awarded to existing clubs in order to boost financial sustainability and allow clubs to continue offering playing opportunities in organised football.

The grants can be used towards match day and training facility hire and league affiliation costs as well as covering match day subs for individuals that aren't able to afford their regular match fees.

Liam Wilson Team Manager, said: "We would like to thank the Football Foundation very much for this grant as it will be vital in sustaining open age football in Silloth and surrounding area."
