On the Waterfront by Tommy Legs

July proved to be quite a reasonable month after a slow start - with seven cargoes.

The first visitor was the DORNUM with wheat from Rostock in Germany followed by two cargoes of wheat from Seaforth Grain Terminal, Liverpool by the BEN ELLAN.

The BALMUNG was next, with fertilizer from Ghent quickly followed by the Dutch vessel HANSEATIC SCOUT from Rouen, also with fertilizer.

The SONJA then arrived with wheat from Paris and lastly the EMUNA came with fertilizer from Sfax in North Africa.

New Web Sites

There are two new local web sites: sillothbeerfestival.co.uk is obviously the new web site for Silloths most successful annual event, the Beer Festival. Check it out.

The best golf club in the area is of course in Silloth, so they too now have a web site at sillothgolfclub.co.uk which is an excellent showcase for the club and will surely help to attract even more visitors to the area. Take a look at the facilities.
