Something for our Little Buzzers

At last, something in the Buzz for all our little Buzzers to do.

Join up the dots starting with number 1 and all the way to 35 to reveal an animal found in the local countryside and answer this question.

What month in the year is this animal associated with?

(a) January
(b) June
(c) March?

Ask your parents to see if they agree with your answer.

You can also colour in your drawing to make it even nicer.

Now look through the Buzz and see how many of these animals you can find, there are 14. Can you find them all?

Abbeytown Bowling Club

Silloth were entertained to a lively evening on the 8th November. There were two games of 6 ends played by each team before supper, which was provided by the members. After supper two more games of 5 ends were played.

The Abbeytown team was short of two players so Norah and Brenda from Silloth changed sides and helped Abbeytown to win 59 to 38. The raffle winners were Brian Lewis and Doreen Matthews from Silloth and John Graham from Abbeytown. Oriol Hocking thanked Abbeytown for an enjoyable evening.

On 15th November Kirkbride were the guests. As both teams were short of players, the 6 games before and after supper were played with three players on each side. Kirkbride came out overall winners at 31 to 48.

Valerie Carr thanked everyone for a very lively evening.

African School Project

Rotarian Charlie Harrison gave a talk to an open audience at the Golf Hotel about his recent trip to Uganda with a Rotaract team, where they built school rooms and a dormitory for orphans of the civil war in that region.

In addition to his own financial input, Charlie was sponsored by Silloth Rotary Club and many generous members of the community. This was an expensive project for Charlie and our small Club to undertake, however, with a lot of local financial support he was able to give very rewarding help to the community at Ginga. The talk was an opportunity for Charlie to pay back something to his many sponsors for all the support he had received.

He now has an ongoing project requiring further sponsorship, and that is to fund the education of one or more children at that school. A home at the school for each child, including food and education, per year, amounts to just £250. If you would like to help Charlie and Silloth Rotary with this project, Contact Oakleaf Hardware, or the Golf Hotel.

Everyone Welcome

At the Whist Drive Christmas Party held in the recreation hall in December, Mrs Anne Neale was presented with the David Routledge Memorial Prize of £25. This was for winning the most games during 2004. Ann's name will be engraved on the silver plate which is kept in the hall. This is in memory of David, who was a regular Whist player.

The presentation was made by Diana Shaw Chairperson of the Association.

Buzz Quiz Results

Many thanks to everyone who sent in entries to the Buzz Quiz in the last issue. Nobody got all the answers totally correct. The largest number of correct answers was 17 submitted by Bob Bell of Skinburness, who generously declined the first prize. The lucky runner-up whose name came out of the hat was Mrs M Harrison from Aldoth, who was delighted to receive the bottle of champagne. The bottle was donated by WACCES, they are a group who raise funds for all our local hospitals. All runner-ups received a Solway Buzz diary
