Play Eric Bristow

The Crafty Cockney, five times World Darts Champion Eric Bristow will be visiting the Balmoral Hotel on Saturday 30th April.

Do you fancy your chances against Eric, come along and have a go. All proceeds from the evening will be donated to the Fire Service National Benevolent Fund.

Will this cheeky mechanic beat him? any bets.....

Silloth Tennis Club

Silloth under 8's at Maryport Civic Hall

It's as if winter has never happened for most of Silloth Tennis Club's young players, with many involved in coaching and competitive action throughout.

With both indoor and outdoor coaching and tournaments taking place in Workington, Maryport, Ulverston and Silloth, there have been many success stories and new players, the summer of 2005 is a mouth watering proposition.

With other players such as Jay Scott, Eve Scott, Tom Beaty, Greg Ramsay, Joel Baker, Jared Cole Reece and Dionne Blake, Emily Wise, Caroline Graham, Katie Smith, Robbie and Sophie Harrison, Aimee Gray, Hannah Story, Nadyne Cole, Sam Brough, Ryan & Rory Johnstone, Rob Jefferson, Anna Jones, Julie Hurst, Dawn Graham, Phil Morton and Sarah Verwoerd all putting on good displays the future of Tennis in our area looks very good indeed.

One of those starting to come to the competitive fore is Abbeytowns' Matthew Middleton, who, in only his second tournament

The first county competition of 2005 takes place on the 19th March at the Sands Centre in Carlisle. It's
