Georgia Takes North Cumbria Tennis Title As Silloth Dominate

Georgia Hoodless showed all her athletic prowess and great tactical skills as she beat fellow Sillothian Emily Wise in a tense and exciting North Cumbria Mini Tennis Red final and with Gareth Davenport narrowly pipped in the boys final it was a day in which the young players of Silloth Tennis Club really did the town proud.

With the Sands Centre in Carlisle as the venue and a field of 70 taking part it was a brilliant effort from our members as Silloth took over the great border city. In addition to these fine performances there were other notable achievements as well with competition debutante Kirsty Girdler making the semi finals, quarter final places for Jared Cole and Reece Blake, Joel Baker and Greg Ramsay fighting out the runners-up final and a second round place for Caroline Graham.

With all of the above qualifying for the county finals in Kendal on April 24th there is a great feeling of anticipation and excitement in the air as the Silloth Tennis road-show moves south!

FINAL RESULTS

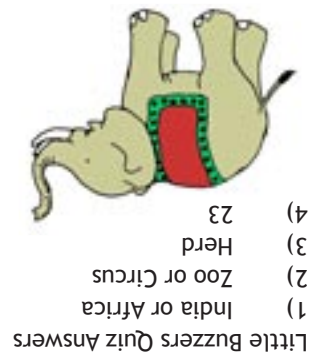

Georgia Hoodless bt Emily Wise 7-5
Michael Reid bt Gareth Davenport 7-5

Dylan Outlasts Matthew in Magical Maryort Final

The second leg of the Easter triangular Tennis series for 7 and under's saw another new name on the winner's rostrum. Workington's Dylan Heslop took his first ever title from under the nose of Abbeytown's Matthew Middleton with a thrilling comeback to win in a sudden death finish 7-6.

With Silloth's Reece Blake taking the title on his own patch it was fellow squad member Dylan's turn to take the glory at the Maryport Civic Hall event. With players from as far as Gosforth and Cleator Moor taking part it proved to be another excellent contest with both semi finals and the girls final being very even battles with the final results in doubt until the very end with both Abbeytown girls Katie Swan and eventual girls winner Abbie Williamson typifying the day with an excellent end to end contest.
