Thousands of visitors flocked to Silloth on Saturday and Sunday to spend an enjoyable weekend at the Silloth Vintage Rally and Music Festival. From the Friday night the Pubs in the town were offering Top Class Entertainment over the weekend.

Visitors came from all over Northern England and Southern Scotland to see the many Vintage and Classical Vehicles and Machinery on Display, the comments made were very favourable.

Every year this event is gaining strength and we are trying to introduce more events on the Green for the added interest of visitors. A new event this year was the Tug of War Championship the winning Team being the Cumberland Inn West Silloth. The Teams all fought hard to win the Trophy and created a very friendly Competition which we hope to sustain. The Children's football was a very big attraction with 13 Teams from schools around the area. This was won by a Silloth team the event was watched and enjoyed by hundreds of supporters.

This year the music on Saturday was provided by Wyndham Band, Egremont, this is a school band led by Sue Ellis which gave a very professional performance enjoyed by visitors and pupils alike so much so the players have asked to return next year. On Sunday the popular Dennis Westmorland as usual gave us his time to entertain with his accordion and singing.

Out thanks go out to so many who have helped to stage this event. The Regeneration Groups and Foundation fund who gave Grants. Silloth on Solway Charity Shop who helped fund the band. Silloth Council for permission to use the Green and aiding us in our efforts. The Business People of Silloth who

We all hope the First Responders won't have much to do!
