

A Practical Remembrance of Easter

The Rev Alan Byrom led a group of worshippers from Christ Church to the Pines on Silloth Green to remember the meaning of Easter in a very visual and practical way. Prayers were made and hymns were sung by all.

Easter Bonnets

Silloth Brownies entertained the residents of the nursing home with their display of Easter Bonnets.

The winners are shown in the picture on the right.

Dancing Bee by Ellie Tremble aged 6 from Holme St. Cuthbert School

Friendly Bees by Kayleigh Whitmore from Silloth Primary School

Gincase Exhibition

David Mandle's beautifully detailed pencil drawings at the Gincase reflect a patient observer of life's landscapes.

Currently living in Brampton David has always enjoyed drawing although confesses he only studied art to 'A' level and has no formal art training.

Speaking of a sketchy drawing career, David says his early work was heavily influenced by his boyhood heroes John Lennon and Paul McCartney. "Much of my early work consisted of black and white drawings of these two, much to the dismay of the art teacher! However, I did move on to landscapes and detailed drawings of buildings, some of which were produced using coloured pencils."

David says that achieving the level of detail he likes takes a considerable amount of time with many drawings taking several months to complete.

Over the years, David has built up a broad portfolio of both black and white and colour pencil drawings, but it is only recently his work has been on public display.

Also on display in

The Gincase Tearoom until Friday 25th May is Belinda Darrington's collection of animal portraits and landscapes.
