Japanese Learn From SPAND

Representatives from The Hokkaido Shimbun Press recently met with members of SPAND. Toru Shikoda san, London Bureau Chief and Steven Ivings, London Correspondent had contacted SPAND as they were interested to learn how the new campaign against the siting of a nuclear dump on the Solway Plain was progressing.

John Haywood, Kath Ostell, Vivian Russell and Don Graham met with Toru Shikoda san and Steven Ivings to give them an opportunity to see an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty whose very existence could be threatened by the siting of a nuclear dump on the Solway Plain. The group spent some time walking out to Grune Point to see the landscape and the wildlife that depends on the environment remaining as it is.

Both visitors were taken by surprise at the sheer beauty of the marshland and expressed their understanding as to why SPAND and local residents were fiercely campaigning. They were particularly interested in the process that was being applied in the UK to find a suitable site. They were dismayed to learn that Government was not placing geology at the top of the selection criteria.

They were keen to learn about the activities of small local groups and wanted to know the details of how the SPAND campaign had been conducted. They were impressed to hear that these groups had helped influence Cumbria County Council into saying no in January 2013 to proceeding further down the route to the siting of a nuclear dump in West Cumbria.

Having spent some time on the marsh the group retired to the Golf Hotel for refreshments and to continue their discussions. Whilst in Silloth they took many photographs and commented on the beauty of the Green and the local architecture. In fact, they described Silloth as 'a hidden gem.'

Who Deserves an Award?

Jimmy Lettice receiving his British Empire Medal from HM Lord Lieutenant Claire Hensman

As the New Year begins, HM Lord-Lieutenant of Cumbria, Mrs Claire Hensman, is encouraging Cumbria's residents to consider putting forward nominees from across the county for a UK Honour.

The Honours system recognises people who have made achievements in public and community life, and are committed to making a difference to those around them.

Anyone can nominate someone for a UK Honour through the 'open access' system and these are awarded to people from all walks of life.

The final decision as to who receives an honour is first decided by an Honours Committee and their recommendations will then go to the Prime Minister and finally to HM The Queen.

On approval, and the whole process can take up to two years, an announcement of recipients will be made in HM The Queen's New Year's Honours List and HM The Queen's Birthday Honours List in June.

For all the details on putting forward a nomination please go to www.cumbria.gov.uk/Lord-Lieutenant Claire Hensman, Cumbria's Lord-Lieutenant, said: "I would encourage people to think about someone that they know who always goes the extra mile for others and who has made a special contribution to their community or to their area of work over the years. These awards are special and for me they are the highest possible recognition of a job well done."

Volunteer to be a Friend

Did you know it is worse for your health to be lonely than to smoke or be overweight? At this time, with dark nights and poor weather, spare a thought for an older person in your local community who is lonely.

Across Wigton and the Solway Plain Age UK West Cumbria is working hard to support the needs of people in all our local communities. We run a variety of groups and activities and also provide support in enabling people to live independently at home for longer.

We are in need of more volunteers to support both individuals and activities and would love to hear from you if you can spare a couple of hours a week. You may feel you have nothing to offer but just a friendly face and some time is all that is needed in some situations.

We also want to find volunteers who can support people to access the internet in an accessible and unthreatening way. We have ideas of how we want to support the needs of older men in particular but need volunteers to help us.

Full support, training and expenses are provided. Why not pick up the phone and make a positive step to support older people in your local community in 2014?

If you can help, please contact Hazel Stewart on 016973 42279. To access our Neighbourhood Care Independence Helpline, ring 08443 843 843.

Mothers Union

Report by: Gladys Temple

Rev. David Tembey began the December meeting of Holme Cultram Abbey Mothers Union with a service in the Ambulatory taking Joseph the father of Jesus as his subject.

It was interesting to hear the Nativity Story from his point of view rather than from the usual one of Mary. Then the members moved into the coffee shop for a delicious supper provided by all the members.

Apologies were received from Brenda Sim, Muriel Studholme, Elaine Atkinson and Connie Brown. Joan Winter read the record of the November meeting and Freda Garner read out various notices including reminding members that hopefully the Deanery Summer Festival will be held in the newly opened Abbey in June. Freda, Elsie Donald and Gladys Temple read out poems and carols were sang.

Heating Help

More support is now available to vulnerable adults below pension-age in Cumbria who may be struggling with heating bills.

Cumbria County Council has set aside £47,000 this winter to help low income families with children aged under-5 years, disabled people and people with long-term health conditions that are made worse by cold. One-off grants of £125 will be available to vulnerable households which meet the criteria, from December 2013 until the end of February 2014.

The funding comes from the council's Ways to Welfare programme which provides support and advice to working-age people throughout the year who are experiencing severe hardship. The winter help will compliment support already available for pensioners in Cumbria Community Foundation's Winter Warmth Fund and other government schemes.

Families with children under-5 years can apply for Cumbria County Council's new cold weather grants through the following organisations:

For Barrow, Millom Keswick, Workington Cockermouth and surrounding areas, contact Action for Children on: 01900 325251.

For Maryport, Aspatria, Wigton, Silloth, Carlisle, Brampton, Penrith, South Lakes, Kendal and surrounding areas, contact Barnardos on: 01900 898040 or email debbie.young@barnardos.org.uk barnardos.org.uk.

For Whitehaven Cleator Moor, Egremont, Seascale and surrounding areas, contact the Howgill Children's Centre on 01946 62681 or email Diane. kenmare@howgill-centre.co.uk

Adults below pension-age with disabilities, or a long-term health condition made worse by cold, can apply for support by contacting Thelma Waite at DACE on 01228 674882.

For all other enquiries, people should contact Cumbria County Council's Ways to Welfare programme on 01228 221100 or email communitysupport@cumbria.gov.uk

Councillor Beth Furneaux, Cumbria County Council's cabinet member for Adult and Local Services, said: "This is one-off funding of £47,000 which the county council is making available to help vulnerable people stay warm this winter. The latest figures show that there are around 190 more deaths in Cumbria in winter compared to non-winter months. Keeping warm is a basic human need and this one-off help is there to help vulnerable working-age adults to stay safe and well this winter. Although times are tough for local government, we are determined to make sure that the vulnerable receive the help they need."

Information on other forms of support and advice available to Cumbrian's this winter, can be viewed online at: <http://www.cumbria.gov.uk/brrr/>.

Portable Heater Warnings

With plunging temperatures predicted to follow the fierce winds and flooding, fire chiefs are warning of the potential dangers posed by portable heaters.

While an electric or gas heater might seem an unlikely fire hazard, if not used carefully it can be a serious risk.

Faulty devices, negligent use of equipment, overheating and placing combustibles too near a heat source can all be factors that contribute to the increased risk.

To help residents keep safe and minimise the dangers of electric heater fires, Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service is warning people to take extra care and follow this advice: Buy a heater that carries the British Standard Institution (BSI) kite mark and read the manufacturer's instructions and warning labels before use.

- DO NOT leave heaters unattended
- DO NOT use your heater with a power strip or extension cord. Overheating of a power strip or extension cord could result in a fire.
- Keep combustible materials, such as furniture, pillows, bedding, papers, clothes and curtains at least one meter from the front of the heater and away from the sides and rear.
- DO NOT block the heater's air intake or exhaust source.
- Keep flammable materials away from the heater.
- Unplug the heater when not in use
- DO NOT use a heater with a damaged cord.
- DO NOT plug any other electrical device into the same outlet as your heater. This could result in overheating.

- Heaters should be kept away from children and not be placed in a child's room without supervision.
- Place heater on a level, flat surface. Only use the heater on table tops when specified by the manufacturer.
- DO NOT place your heater on furniture. It could fall, dislodging or breaking parts in the heater or fall and ignite furniture.

Advice for the safe use of portable gas heaters is as follows:

- Ensure the appliance is serviced regularly. If it develops a fault it can emit Carbon Monoxide.
- Always install a Carbon Monoxide alarm when using gas appliances.
- Ensure there is adequate ventilation when using the appliance.
- Check that the valve on the empty cylinder is closed before disconnecting from the heater. Do not turn on the valve of the new cylinder until the cylinder is securely connected to the heater.
- Ensure that the pierceable cartridge is empty before removing. Check that the valve on the heater is closed, the sealing washer is in good condition and correctly located before fitting a new cartridge.
- Store spare cylinders outside whenever possible. Never store them in basements, near drains, under stairs or in cupboards containing electric meters or equipment.
- Spare cylinders must be stored upright.
- Never use a lighted match or any other flame to test for leaks.

Cumbria's Chief Fire Officer Ian Cartwright said:

"Portable heaters can be a quick and effective way of warming the home, but I'd urge anybody using them to take a few simple safety precautions first. People are becoming increasingly aware of the dangers of chimney fires and the importance of getting chimneys cleaned, but the potential dangers of portable electric and gas heaters can be overlooked. Rising fuel prices mean more people may start using portable heaters as an alternative to central heating so the safety messages are likely to apply to an increasing number of households this winter."

By targeting resources at prevention activity Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service has brought about a 34 per cent reduction in the number of incidents across the county in the last six years.

As a result the county council is currently consulting on proposals for better reflecting risk patterns and shaping the Service to the dangers that actually exist.

To have a say on the Fire Service budget proposals, and others within the council's public consultation, visit www.cumbria.gov.uk/ourfuture or pick up a copy of the consultation document available in local libraries and other public buildings.

Nursing Homes Visited by Mayors of Silloth & Allerdale at Christmas

Mayor of Silloth and Mayor of Allerdale with staff & residents at Silloth Nursing Home

Report by: Cllr Tony Markley Mayor, Silloth on Solway

Saturday 14th December was another great day for Silloth with the opening of the new BMX track. The event was extremely well attended, especially by eager young BMX riders who had been waiting patiently for this fantastic new attraction on Silloth Green to be opened.

The Mayor and Mayoress of Allerdale Cllr Bill Bacon was in attendance at the event, after the normal introduction speeches and vote of thanks to all who had assisted in this worthwhile project The Mayor of Silloth and Mayor of Allerdale held a ribbon which was cut by the young riders who had approached Silloth Town Council asking for this track to be built.

A group of BMX Stunt event riders from Scotland called The Clan then proceeded to give a fantastic riding exhibition on the new track quickly followed by the young local BMX riders who stayed all day through wet and windy weather to use and enjoy this great new facility.

After the opening of the new BMX track, myself as Mayor of Silloth and the Mayor and Mayoress of Allerdale visited the four residential care homes in Silloth.

Our visit was extremely well accepted by the staff and residents of all the homes. It was a pleasure to visit the residents and have a brief talk about local topics from the past and present, some of the residents I hadn't seen or spoken with for years. We enjoyed mince pies with a glass of sherry then left wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New year.

We both enjoyed our visit and look forward to returning later in the year.

Belly Dancers Having Fun!

Silloth has its very own Belly Dance Group, they meet on Tuesday mornings at the RAFA Club.

They are a mixture of all types of friendly ladies who enjoy having a go at belly dancing. This is not about learning to perform, it is an hour or so of fun and exercise.

It's well known that music and dance lift the spirits, improves wellbeing and is good for your health, so why not give it a go.

If you want more information phone June on 01900 816381.

Men's Choir Winter Concert

Report by:
Lawrence Marshall

Christ-church and St. Pauls men's choir winter concert was held in the church hall on Friday 13th December.

As usual, it was very well received and of course the supper of pie, peas, trifle and mince-pies with coffee was an attraction.

The church team rector Canon Bryan Rothwell delivered grace to allow the meal to begin. Following the meal the Rev. David Tembey welcomed everyone.

The choir's music director Derek Shaw had put together a programme of twenty-five songs and carols with a break to hold the large drawing. The large number of prizes are donated by the choir members and many are from friends of the two churches.

Soloist Jim Brough

sang 'My Way' and Barry Lodge sang 'On the road to Mandalay', both to rapturous applause. The variety of the programme music director Derek Shaw had put together was a great success.

The vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Lynn Tembey the president of the World-wide Mothers-union. Mrs. Tembey thanked all concerned for a very entertaining evening. The sum of £1,018 raised a record for this annual event and goes to church funds.

The following week the choir sang a shortened programme at Littleacre Care Home and the Silloth Nursing Home.

On Sunday 22nd December the choir joined the congregation at St. Pauls at Causewayhead for their service of carols and readings.

Cook Carefully

A call for careful cooking is being issued after a spate of kitchen fires around the county.

New figures from Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service show that between 1 April 2013 and 31 October 2013 there were a total of 61 cooking-related incidents county-wide - with the Workington locality (which covers Allerdale and north Copeland) topping the chart with 26 incidents.

The Barrow locality (covering Barrow, south Copeland and part of South Lakeland) has seen 14 incidents, Carlisle (covering Carlisle and north Eden) 17 and Kendal (covering South Lakeland and southern Eden) four.

While the number of cooking-related fires has been lower over this period than the same time last year, firefighters are calling on residents to show more care.

Cumbria's Chief Fire Officer Ian Cartwright said: "More than half of all accidental house fires start in the kitchen so it's absolutely crucial that people are aware of the dangers when cooking and take steps to keep themselves and their families safe. Getting distracted is often the cause of cooking fires. It's very easy to forget you've got something boiling in a pan or roasting in the oven, so just ensuring you're switched on and paying attention to what you're doing in the kitchen can go a long way towards reducing the fire risk. Just about every piece of kitchen equipment from chip-pans to toasters and hot-plates to microwaves can be a potential fire hazard if not treated with care. As well as being aware of cooking fire safety in your own home, I'd encourage people to look out for their friends, family and neighbours, especially if they're vulnerable through age or disability and living alone."

Cumbria Fire and Rescue Service is encouraging people to follow these hints and tips for staying safe:

- Keep handles of pans turned to the back of the hob and away from other gas burners/electric rings.
- Take care when cooking with oil - it sets alight easily.
- Take pans off the heat and turn off the hob and/or grill if you have to leave the kitchen while cooking, and make sure the oven, hob and grill is turned off when you have finished cooking.

- Don't overfill a chip pan with oil - never fill it more than one third full.
- Avoid cooking if you are tired, have been drinking excessive amounts of alcohol or are taking medication that can make you drowsy.

- Keep electrical leads, tea towels, cloths, loose clothing and anything else that may catch fire away from the oven and hob.

- Keep the oven, hob and grill clean - a build-up of fat and grease can easily catch fire.

- Keep your toaster clean, free of crumbs and away from curtains, kitchen rolls and anything else that could catch fire.

- Never put anything metallic inside your microwave.

- Never attempt to sterilise dish cloths or sponges by heating them in the microwave.

- Never overload sockets - use one plug in each socket. If you have to, use a fused adapter and keep the total output to no more than 13 amps (a kettle alone uses 13 amps). Remember, high-rated appliances such as washing machines always need their own socket.

- Make sure plugs have the correct fuse for the appliance being used. If in doubt, refer to the manufacturers instructions.

- Turn off electrical appliances when not being used and have them serviced regularly.

- Keep electrical leads and appliances away from water.

- Use a spark device to light gas cookers as this is safer than using matches or lighters.

- Never leave children alone in the kitchen. Keep matches, lighters and pan handles where children can't reach them. Fit a child safety catch to the oven door.

By educating people about fire dangers and promoting prevention rather than cure, CFRS has brought about a major decrease in fire incidents across Cumbria in the last six years - a 47 per cent reduction between 2007-08 and 2012-13.

Rotary Charter Night

I am recovering from a fantastic Rotary Club Charter (birthday party) celebration dinner last night. Well done to President Tom's team! Thank you to all those who helped make it a successful evening, in particular to Gary Conlon and his staff at the Golf Hotel in Silloth, the meal there once again, was second to none. During the course of the evening a Community Service Certificate was presented to Rotarian Colin Smithson. During the floods at the beginning of the month, Colin went to the aid of a stranded driver wading through freezing waist high flood water to reach her and bring her to safety. He'd spotted her vehicle from the balcony of his home in

Mayor Tony Markley, President Tom Osowski, Rotary 1190 District Governor Kevin Walsh, guest speaker author, songwriter and filmmaker Joe Stretch and MC Tim Barker

Kirkbride in Cumbria, while taking photos of the flooding. Colin said "She was obviously very frightened, she said she'd rang people because she thought she was going to drown because by that time the water in the car was up to her chest". However he says he's not a hero and says he was just doing what he needed to do. Whatever he thinks, we think it was a job well done Mr Smithson! For more information about the club at Silloth or Rotary in general please contact the club P.R. Chairman on 0774 8098081.

Luncheon Club Dinner

Report by: Lawrence Marshall
Photos by: Geoff Betsworth

On December 9th the Monday Luncheon Club had their Christmas dinner at Wheyrigg Hotel.

The fourteen club members were joined by the ladies who serve the food to the diners throughout the year which comes from the Solway Technology College.

The meal and service was excellent. We were transported to Wheyrigg in the Community Bus which was driven by volunteer driver Geoff Betsworth and our other volunteer driver Liz Elliot also attended. After the meal one of our senior members Lily Langford entertained us by leading a sing-along which was very well received. On the return journey the bus took us to have a look at the very well decorated Abbey in Abbeytown. All enjoyed a very satisfying Christmas dinner celebration.

Teddy Bear Collection

Rotarian Colin Smithson reports that the latest news on the Teddy Bear and cuddly toy collection for children in the Philippines, is that following a Christmas stopover in the departure lounge on the airfield here in Silloth, they are being tucked into watertight bags and packed in cardboard boxes ready for the long journey to the other side of the world. Thank you to everybody who responded so generously to this slightly more unusual call for help.

Tell the World about Silloth Attractions & Events

Treasuresofcumbria.org.uk is a new website, it has just been launched to tell everyone about what is happening in Cumbria. It is for anybody who lives, works, visits or is interested in Cumbria. It has been developed and is managed by the Cumbria Museum Consortium as an online space for people to record and share what they treasure about Cumbria. Everyone can feed information on to the site so that we can all see what is available all around us. At the time of writing there was nothing about the Silloth area so hopefully there will be plenty more on there before the tourist season gets busy this Spring.

Christmas at Nursing Home

Report by: John Molyneux

The residents, their families and staff all had a great time at Silloth Nursing Home.

Following a lovely Christmas dinner and a glass of wine for everyone they were entertained by Roe Valley who played folk dancing tunes from the 60s and 70s.

On Christmas day Santa Claus arrived with a little present for everyone.

This really was a credit to matron Anne and all her lovely staff.

Money Advice Service

Advice on managing money, benefits and other finance-related issues is just a mouse click away thanks to Cumbria County Council's library service.

The new online resource is a one-stop-shop for links to tried and tested websites that contain a wealth of information relevant to work, welfare and finances, and can be accessed by following the 'Business, Welfare and Lifestyle Information' link at www.cumbria.gov.uk/libraries.

Statistics show that one in six Cumbrian households have an annual income of less than £10,000, over 42,000 people of working age claim benefits, and 16 per cent of children live in poverty.

For those in work, wages and salaries in Cumbria are relatively low with earning in some parts of the county significantly lower than national and regional averages.

The new online resource from the county council's library service is intended to provide more information in one place for people who need help and advice.

Councillor Beth Furneaux, Cumbria County Council's cabinet member for Adults and Local Services, said:

"The tradition of municipal libraries, and the social movement to provide access to free information for everyone, stretches back to Victorian times. Access to free information remains as important today as it was a century ago. It improves social mobility, helps develop the skills needed for a job, and enables us find the support and advice we need at various points in our lives. The county council library service is using its growing online presence to provide information and advice from a range of different sources for people who need information on money-related issues."

"Hold a Fish and Chip Supper to help spinal cord injured people rebuild lives after injury"

Want to eat Fish and Chips, while raising money for charity? Hold a fish and chip supper on Friday 16th May 2014 whilst raising awareness of spinal cord injury and supporting SIA's vital services.

You can hold a fish and chip supper in your own home, at work or hold a larger supper at your local community centre.

SIA will provide a fundraising pack containing hints and tips, recipes, invitations and donation envelopes. By inviting 8 friends and asking them to donate an additional £5.00 means you will raise at least £40.00 from your supper but we will also give you additional fundraising ideas to raise even more money for SIA.

In 2014 SIA is celebrating its 40th anniversary and so we want to make the matter and raise £25,000 from everyone holding suppers. Last year we raised £12,500 from the suppers. The money raised from the suppers will help the Spinal Injuries Association offer support to individuals who become paralysed and their families, from the moment a spinal injury occurs, and for the rest of their lives by providing services and publications which enable and encourage paralysed people to rebuild lives after spinal cord injury.

Every year in the UK over 1,000 people experience a spinal cord injury and there are an estimated 40,000 spinal cord injured people in the UK alone.

Community Fundraising Manager, Elizabeth Wright, says, "The Fish and Chip Supper is a wonderful opportunity for a great evening with friends and family. We are also encouraging people who work to hold a Fish and Chip Lunch in their work places to raise even more funds. You may be even a local community group wanting to run a fun evening with your group.

For more information or request a fundraising pack call Elizabeth Wright on 0845 071 4350 or email fundraising@siafishandchips.co.uk or visit www.siafishandchips.co.uk

Mogwai Want Your Poem

Budding poets in Cumbria have been asked to pen an ode to lift the lost village of Mardale Green from the bed of Haweswater and win the chance to have their work set to music by rock royalty Mogwai.

The competition has been launched by CultureNL, a charity that runs North Lanarkshire Libraries, which has invited libraries in Cumbria and Gwynedd in Wales to take part in the event that centres on the theme of drowned villages.

Open until 24th February, all entrants must be aged 14 or over and library members. Entries can be emailed or handed in to libraries. Entrants in Cumbria should send entries to libraries@cumbria.gov.uk. All entries should have subject heading Drowned Village Poetry Competition and include a name, age, contact details and library card/membership number.

The best poem will be put to music by cult Scottish band Mogwai.

The judging panel is Scotland's national poet, Liz Lochhead and Nicky Wire, bassist in Manic Street Preachers. There is also to be a judge representing Cumbria.

The competition was born once Jane Graham, the current Reader in Residence for libraries in North Lanarkshire, discovered the history of the lost village of Bothwellhaugh in Lanarkshire. Bothwellhaugh was deliberately flooded in 1965 for the development of Strathclyde Country Park.

Inspired by the story, Jane decided to link up with libraries in Cumbria and Gwynedd in north Wales, both of which have their own drowned village.

Mogwai's Stuart Braithwaite said: "The drowned village poetry competition really appealed to us on many levels. I think that inspiring people to write poetry is wonderful and the opportunity to accompany it with my music was too good to pass by. I also feel that supporting libraries is absolutely essential. They are vital for our communities and have to be cherished and protected."

Regional winners will be announced mid-April and the overall winner's Mogwai collaboration will receive an exclusive play on BBC radio.

Rotary News & Santas Sleigh

President Tom and members of the Rotary Club of Silloth-on-Solway wish the people of Silloth and the surrounding areas a happy new year.

This is the time when Rotary decide on their charitable donations. The charities and organisations listed below are the worthy recipients on this occasion:

Abbeytown Pre School, Calvert Trust, Alzheimer's Society, Chrysalis, Cumbria Deaf Association, Eden Valley Hospice, Hospice at Home, Jaipur Limb Project, Macmillan Cancer Support, Silloth RNLI, Sightsavers, James Rennie, Holme St. Cuthbert, Holme Cultram, Silloth Community & Silloth Primary Schools, WaterAid, Jubilee Sailing Trust, Silloth First Responders, British Heart Foundation, Hearing Dogs for the Deaf, Silloth Open Door Group, Riding for the Disabled, Carlisle Special Care Baby Unit, Silloth Nursing Home and Silloth Junior Football Club.

One of the most rewarding events in the Rotary calendar here in Silloth, is the annual visit of Santa Claus to the town. There was as usual on these occasions, a good turn out of Rotarians and friends to help hand out gifts to the youngsters, and also consume one or two mince pies and glasses of amber nectar, and the people of the town gave very generously when Santa's helpers passed by with the Rotary donation buckets. Santa would like to thank everyone for the mince pies, sherry and other seasonal comestibles. The Rotary Club would also like to thank Malcolm Edmondson and Angus Emmerson for the use of the trailer and their assistance yet again in assembling the "Grotto" which was used for Santa's transport on the night. Also, thanks to Alison Henderson for her continuing support and refreshments on the night, and last but not least to Paul Gilmour for supplying the sound system and Richard Emmerson for his general help with the Sleigh.

We Didn't Have This 'Green Thing' In Our Day!

This arrived by email, author unknown, but very true for all of us oldies. We know that it's not all our fault.

Checking out at the supermarket, the young cashier suggested to the much older woman, that she should bring her own grocery bags because plastic bags weren't good for the environment.

The woman apologised and explained, "We didn't have this 'green thing' back in my earlier days."

The young cashier responded, "That's our problem today - your generation did not care enough to save our environment for future generations."

She was right - our generation didn't have the 'green thing' in its day.

Back then, we returned milk bottles, lemonade bottles and beer bottles to the shop. The shop sent them back to the plant to be washed and sterilised and refilled, so it could use the same bottles over and over. So they really were recycled.

But we didn't have the "green thing" back in our day.

Grocery shops bagged our groceries in brown paper bags, that we re-used for numerous things, most memorable besides household bags for rubbish, was the use of brown paper bags as book covers for our schoolbooks. This was to ensure that public property (the books provided for our use by the school), was not defaced by our scribbblings. Then we were able to personalise our books on the brown paper bags.

But too bad we didn't do the "green thing" back then.

We walked up stairs, because we didn't have a lift in every supermarket, shop and office building. We walked to the local shop and didn't climb into a 100 horsepower machine every time we had to go half a mile.

But she was right. We didn't have the "green thing" in our day.

Back then, we washed the baby's Terry Towel nappies because we didn't have the throwaway kind. We dried clothes on a line, not in an energy-gobbling machine burning up 3 kilowatts - wind and solar power really did dry our clothes back in our early days. Kids had hand-me-down clothes from their brothers or sisters, not always brand-new clothing.

But that young lady is right; we didn't have the "green thing" back in our day.

Back then, we had one radio or TV in the house - not a TV in every room and the TV had a small screen the size of a big handkerchief (remember them?), not a screen the size of Scotland. In the kitchen we blended and stirred by hand because we didn't have electric machines to do everything for us. When we packaged a fragile item to send in the mail, we used wadded up old newspapers to cushion it, not Styrofoam or plastic bubble wrap. Back then, we didn't fire up an engine and burn petrol just to cut the lawn. We pushed the mower that ran on human power. We exercised by working so we didn't need to go to a health club to run on treadmills that operate on electricity.

But she's right; we didn't have the "green thing" back then.

We drank from a tap or fountain when we were thirsty instead of using a cup or a plastic bottle every time we had a drink of water. We refilled writing pens with ink instead of buying a new pen, and we replaced the razor blades in a razor instead of throwing away the whole razor just because the blade got dull.

But we didn't have the "green thing" back then.

Back then, people took the bus and kids rode their bikes to school or walked instead of turning their Mums into a 24-hour taxi service in the family's £30,000 'People Carrier' which cost the same as a whole house did before the "green thing." We had one electrical outlet in a room, not an entire bank of sockets to power a dozen appliances and we didn't need a computerised gadget to receive a signal beamed from satellites 23,000 miles out in space in order to find the nearest Pub!

But isn't it sad that the current generation laments how wasteful we old folks were just because we didn't have the "green thing" back then?

Please forward this on to another selfish old person who needs a lesson in conservation from a smart-arse young person...

Here endeth the lesson!

January's meeting was our Beer Tasting evening and from the many entries the favourite by some margin was English Pale Ale (EPA)

February's meeting will be the annual Cheese, Wine and Games evening to be held in the Main Hall of Blencogo Village Hall on 12th February starting at 7:30pm. All are very welcome.

Your Letters

Dear Buzz,

HAPPY NEW YEAR to all at the Buzz.

You move to Silloth and settle in and then what happens - YA GET TO BE A PARTY ANIMAL!!

Two Christmas lunches and a Christmas dinner in just one week and then my first ever Hogmanay to bring in 2014. Although, when you read this, it'll all be over (or just beginning depending on how you view a new year!) and I'll be trying to live up to my resolutions! Will I make it? More on that at a later date ...maybe.

The festivities began for me with a dozen or so members of the Silloth Patchwork Heaven group attending lunch at The Golf Club, a delicious meal, expertly presented and served was enjoyed by all. The group, lead by Mrs Brenda Dowdell, meets each week in Silloth and will be resuming during January 2014, more on dates and times in a later edition.

We all assembled in the bar and had a sip of festive cheer and then on to the dining room, where we had our Christmas lunch, there were different dishes, all pre-chosen by each person to include two or three courses. Plenty of food, plenty of chatter and plenty of merriment made for a most enjoyable time.

The second lunch I attended was at Bank Mill Nursery at Mawbray for around 30 members of the Silloth Drop In Craft Group that meets on Wednesday afternoons at the Methodist Church Hall on Solway Street.

The food and service was of the usual very high standard which we've come to expect at Bank Mill and when pudding time arrived, there were some amongst us who were rendered speechless, by their choices!

The tables were all festively decorated and the service, for so many people, not to mention the additional customers who were accommodated in another dining area, was exemplary, good natured and very patient. Once again, a big thank you and very well done to Shirley and her team, also to Mrs Robina Bond for getting the event organized for us all to enjoy.

My overindulgent week concluded with another visit to Silloth Golf Club for dinner with the members of The Solway Woodcarvers Group. The evening was enjoyed by all with plenty of good humour and comical quips circulating at lightning speed, they're a lively group these woodcarvers and turn out some incredible work - visit the groups Facebook page to see some of the things they get up to. Clive Firth (founder and Chair of the group) was presented with gifts on behalf of the membership by Alison Robertshaw, who also organized the event, as an expression of thanks for his very hard work and encouragement within the group and Clive's wife Carol Ann was presented with flowers.

Jennifer Bailey

Dear Buzz,

I would be grateful if you could pass on our heartfelt thanks to everyone who sent cards and kind messages of sympathy during our recent sad loss of Dougie. Also a big thank-you for the generous donations received in his memory in lieu of flowers. The sum of £510 has now been forwarded on to Knoxwood Wildlife Rescue Trust.

Thanks again to you all for your kindness and generosity.

Poem

99 Pence
A Poem by Joan Bennett

I wish you were here, instead of me,
I'd booked a flight for 99p,
You told me to book on the internet,
You said booking on line was a very safe bet.
I needed a break so to Spain I would go,
It had to be cheap as my funds were so low,
I took your advice and on line I went,
I'd have been better off, at home in a tent.
The airline's ad said, to Spain it is cheap,
Only 99 pence but you can't book a seat,
The ad didn't say that you paid to come home,
One hundred pounds shaved my cash to the bone.
I arrived in Spain and the weather was hot,
My taxi's on time, arrived dead on the dot,
Where are you going? The nice driver asked,
When he saw the address, he winked and he laughed.
Is this your first visit? asked he, hand on the lock,
If it is I'm afraid you are in for a shock,
The car stopped, I thought, we're in the wrong place,
This old run-down building, is a shocking disgrace.
That's twenty five euros, the nice driver said, please,
If I spend much more money, I'll be down on my knees.
I entered the building, once more had a shock,
I hadn't booked an hotel, but an apartment block.
I found my apartment, it's not very clean,
The tiles round the bath are all mouldy and green,
More money I spend, buying flannel and soap,
By now I'm beginning to feel a right dope.
I looked out of the window, I could see a pool,
At last, something nice that would keep me cool,
I unpacked my bikini, to the pool I went,
Only to find that the towels I must rent.
More money I spend and I must buy some food,
I'm losing my patience I don't mean to be rude,
But from now on my friend you can keep your advice,
I'll book through travel agents, go somewhere nice.
I'll save a bit longer, then for sure I will know,
That the places I go to will put on a show,
Luxury, and comfort, is what I adore,
In this life my friend, you get what you pay for.

Wars of The Roses: Stormbird
by Conn Iggulden

King Henry V – the great Lion of England – is long dead. In 1437 the pious and the gentle Henry VI, the Lamb, comes of age and accedes to the throne but his poor health and frailty of mind render him a weakling king. With England's territories in France under threat, and rumours of revolt at home, fears grow that Henry and his advisers will see the country slide into ruin.

As storm clouds gather over England, King Henry and his supporters find themselves besieged abroad and at home. Who or what can save the kingdom before it is too late?

The Swedish Girl
by Alex Gray

Eighteen – year – old Kirsty Wilson can't believe her luck when she lands a room in the luxury Glasgow flat owned by the beautiful Eva Magnusson. Her initial delight turns to terror when Kirsty finds Eva lying dead in their home and their male flatmate accused of her murder. Kirsty refuses to accept that he is guilty and sets out to clear his name.

It is not long until another woman is brutally murdered. Horrified, the police realise that Kirsty could be right. Is it possible that they've put the wrong man behind bars?

Jessi-cat
by Jayne Dillon

Lorcan was seven years old when his mother first heard him say "I love you." The words were not directed at her, but at Jessi-cat, the family pet.

Lorcan suffers from autism and selective mutism, rendering him unable to speak in certain situations. This all began to change with the arrival of a kitten named Jessi-cat. This is the stirring tale of how the affection and attention of a constant loving companion allowed a little boy to start to connect with the world around him.

Report by: Captain Slog
(Assisted by David at John Stronach Shipping Agency)

December 2013
1st. Hav Zander from Ghent with fertilizer, then in ballast to Bird Port (Newport).
12th. Ben Varrey from Liverpool with wheat, then in ballast to Kilroot.
16th. Swedica Hav from Hamburg, then in ballast to Rekeford.
17th. Hertfordshire from Rouen, then in ballast to Buckie.

is unchanged, the funnel colours now bear the badge of their new owner.
Angel Shipping Co. Ltd already owns a small but expanding fleet of coastal dry cargo vessels, most of which have called at Silloth in the past under previous ownership. These ships are the 'Falcon', ex 'Hoo Falcon', the 'Swift', ex 'Hoo Swift' and the 'Martin', ex 'Hoo Martin', plus the 'Pluto', ex 'Union Pluto'.
Here at Silloth, we look

It is with much regret and sadness that I have to report the demise of the Ramsey Steamship Company, (RSSCo), which occurred on 28th November 2013. This well-known and respected shipping company, based at Ramsey on the Isle of Man, was formed just over 100 years ago, in April 1913 and traded mainly to and from ports around the Irish Sea, including Silloth. My report in the January 2013 edition of the Solway Buzz detailed the company history. The downfall of the RSSCo was reportedly due to unfavourable trading conditions and the overwhelming burden of company pension obligations.

The last remaining ships owned by the company were the Ben Varrey (4) 997GT and the Ben Maye (2), 548GT, both of which have now been sold to the Kent based ship owner, Angel Shipping Co. Ltd and will be managed and operated by its wholly owned subsidiary Absolute Shipping Co. Ltd, incorporated on 30th April 2013. Both these ships have been frequent visitors to Silloth and will continue to do so under the new management company, retaining their existing names for the time being, but ship spotters will notice that, whilst the hull colour forward to many future visits of the two 'Ben boats', along with the other vessels in the 'Angel Fleet' when cargo opportunities arise.

Goodbye to RSSCo and hello to Angel Shipping

On a totally different topic, you may remember that back in the September 2013 edition of the Solway Buzz, I wrote about the opening of a new branch of the Mission to Seafarers, here at Silloth. Also about what you could personally do, along with a small team of knitters, to make life a little easier for the seafarers visiting Silloth. Liz Elliott, who runs the local branch, has received a very nice email from the 2nd Officer of a ship called 'Scot Venture', which has called both at Silloth and Workington in recent months. visited the ship and handed over some Christmas parcels for the crew, which included a few woollen hats knitted by local people.

The email from the ship stated, "The 'Scot Venture' is one of a small fleet that plies between the UK and Northern European ports. It can get pretty cold in that area, especially in the Baltic Sea, with the sea being frozen over for much of the winter. The Scot Line crews, (along with many other crews visiting Silloth), are nearly all from the Philippines and when joining their ships in Europe they experience a considerable drop in temperature from 30 degrees Celsius at home, to whatever it is in their new area of operation. Even in the spring and occasionally the summer months, it will be a huge shock and acclimatization can take some time. The crew would not bring their own hats with them, because where could you get, or possibly need, a woollen hat in the Philippines? On arrival at Silloth or Workington, to be presented with a warm, woolly hat is a Godsend. Heartfelt thanks go to all the knitters, from seafarers across the world. Sterling work ladies and please keep it up".

So there you are, an example of how the work of local volunteer knitters, in association with the Mission to Seafarers, is really appreciated by those who's working life takes them far from home.

New Service!

Jackie Thompson has spent most of her life in Silloth, as she says, she hasn't ventured far!

She has been working as a nurse for over thirty years, the last fourteen of which have been spent as a practice nurse at Wigton Surgery. An enjoyable part of her daily workload involves the assessment and wound care of patient's feet, including those with diabetes for whom it is of the upmost importance that they closely monitor and care for their feet.

If you have ever suffered from sore feet you will know how it can affect your mobility and whole wellbeing, therefore having the ability to sort out a foot problem and improving someone's quality of life brings a great deal of job satisfaction to Jackie.

Regularly working alongside a podiatrist in the surgery gave her the incentive to become a fully accredited foot health practitioner. The transition into foot care was a natural and exciting progression for Jackie and the course and practical training she undertook, she funded by herself, enabling Jackie to pursue an area of special interest with enhanced knowledge, enthusiasm and expertise.

Jackie is now working as a private mobile practitioner under the name of 'Jackie's Footcare' in Silloth and the surrounding area, caring for feet in the comfort of your own home. See her advert on this page

Go Green

Coming soon - chance for households to become greener.

Households looking to become even greener in the New Year will be able to get heavily discounted home food waste digesters, thanks to a new initiative by Cumbria County Council.

Residents in Allerdale, Barrow and Eden will be able to start ordering the units in February 2014 after the council successfully bid for funding from the Department for Communities and Local Government's Weekly Collection Support Scheme.

The three districts chosen are being targeted specifically in the £606,000 project as they still operate a weekly waste collection. The food digesters will reduce the need to collect and treat up to 1,300 tonnes of waste per year, and will reduce carbon emissions by approximately 4,600 tonnes per year.

Around 6,500 households will have the opportunity to receive a food digester. There are two types of units, one producing a rich compost and the other a minimal residue, which can handle all types of food waste (including cooked or uncooked meat, fish and dairy). They will be available for households to purchase at a discount of 75% - approximately £15-£20 each.

Following a procurement exercise, the council has appointed Great Green Systems Ltd to carry out order fulfilment and delivery of the units to properties.

Councillor Clare Feeney-Johnson, Cumbria County Council Cabinet member for Environment, said: "I'm delighted we have secured funding for this exciting initiative, which will offer fantastic savings for households looking to compost all their food waste at home. I would encourage residents to take advantage of this scheme, which will have a really positive impact on the environment and also help reduce the council's waste treatment costs."

Full details of how to apply for discounted units will be made available when the scheme is officially launched in the New Year.

For more information on how households can make savings by reducing the amount of food they throw away, visit www.lovefoodhatewaste.com.

Astrology

SCORPIO

October 23rd to November 21st

'Who keeps an arrow in his bow?

And if you prod, he lets it go?

A fervent friend, a subtle foe -

That's SCORPIO

This is the sign of the Scorpion - with a pronounced sting in his/her tail! Powerful feelings and emotions are at work here and subtle shifts in attitude abound. The Scorpion heart 'has its reasons which the mind knows nothing of' but ultimately, it's either all or nothing!

The Bright Side:

Although they often get a bad press astrologically, Scorpios (with their very intense personalities) also possess hidden depths of perspicacity and compassion. Being deeply emotional themselves, Scorpios understand and accept the feelings and pain that others often find they cannot handle. Imaginative and discerning, they make loyal and committed friends and demonstrate a determined and persistent approach to achieving their goals in life.

The Dark Side:

Scorpios have a hidden and secretive side and are not averse to using their very deep understanding of people for their own ends - usually directed towards gaining power. At their very worst, Scorpios never forget a grudge and can be quite vindictive (and physical) in 'getting even' So...don't upset them to begin with!

Scorpion metal is cold, hard steel and their 'personal' colour is deep (blood!) red; plants associated with this sign include briar, cactus and furze - all a little prickly! Scorpios often have an interest in the Occult, and Tarot Cards appeal to their mysterious side. All in all - an extremely intense sign!

Silloth AFC have two new teams on the horizon.

The over 35s are returning after a year out. If you would like to play contact Lama in Jaybees. All players new and old are very welcome, the first game is on 1st April.

The u-7s will also be starting soon under the guidance of Liam Wilson with Martin Slack and the parents. Training is in the Sports Hall on Wednesdays from 4-5pm for the u-7s, then 5-6pm for the u-11s.

The club are looking to send interested people on a coaching course this spring, if anybody is interested please contact Liam or any committee member.

Silloth AFC is a community club, with our heart in the community. It is nice to see some good young talent being brought on by the management.

Good luck to the lads in their quest for promotion and success in the cups. There is a big quarter final coming up in the Cumberland Cup tie against Aspatria at Eden Street playing fields on the 1st of March with a 2pm kick-off.

To coincide with this game we are inviting all Silloth old boys to come down. There will be refreshments for all. It would be nice to see all the old faces so please come down, support the lads and enjoy the day.

Silloth Tigers Romping Home

Silloth Tigers Rugby Club started the new year with a bang!

The first game of 2014 saw Silloth welcome local rivals Wigton, the game was dominated start to finish by Silloth who were worthy 71-0 winners. Next up was a trip to Millom and again a dominant Tiger team came away with a 41-0 win. Next up was a stronger test against Penrith at home.

Coach Mark Orchard said: "In the last three games we have scored 160 points and conceded only 7 while keeping two clean sheets. Ricki Sutcliffe joins Dean Scholey in breaking the 100 point barrier, he has scored 22 tries so far this season and 10 in his last three games. When Sam Winter scored on Saturday he became the 25th Silloth player to do so this season."

Silloth welcomed a strong Penrith side to the Jim Brough rugby park, with Penriths 1st team without a game and Millom 2nd

Forward Lee Tinkler breaking out of a tackle on another solid run team crying off against the vagabonds Penrith coach Bill Laidlaw brought a solid mixed team, Silloth as usual started strong and their constant pressure resulted in Silloth gaining both possession and territorial advantage which were eventually turned into points. Silloth turned over the Penrith scrum and their switch play caught out the Penrith defence and Stoddart put Winger Ricki Sutcliffe clear to score in the corner, Dean Scholeys conversion. Silloths lead was extended almost immediately when Flanker Jonathan Burnyeat ran over half the pitch to score under the posts, 12-0. Silloth were now well on top.

Penrith, who seemed to be shell shocked from Silloths constant pressure were eventually starting to settle and put some good phases together. With half time approaching Silloth lifted their game again and got back on top and with this came their third try, from a scrum Nixon again got the better of his opposite man John Sealby and broke clear, his pass found Stoddart who crashed over in the corner, 17-0 HT.

Penrith started the 2nd half knowing they must score to have any chance of staying in the game, they were putting Silloth under pressure and this pressure frustrated the Silloth pack into giving away needless penalties. Penrith were capitalising on this and a quick penalty saw Penrith hooker Craig Price catch Silloth off-guard and crash through the defence and touch down for a deserved try, Rylands conversion made it 17-7.

Silloth looked shocked and were now on the back foot as Penriths try lifted them. Silloth made changes and responded, some great kicking from Stoddart and Scholey was keeping Silloth in the Penrith half and frustrating the visiting side. Back flanker Sam Winter was quickest to react and sprinted to touch the ball down and score the all important bonus point try, his try made him Silloths 25th different try scorer this season, 22-7. This knocked the wind out of Penriths sails. The Tigers extended their lead, another dominant turnover scrum from Silloth saw the ball passed from right to left and winger Ricki Sutcliffe raced clear to score his third hat-trick in 3 games, Scholey added the extras 29-7. Penrith were now down and out and Silloth were producing some outstanding rugby. Captain Jamie Baxter next to score a well deserved try, 36-7. It was now one way traffic and Silloth were

on fire. Next, Barker scored a fantastic try that even the Penrith side applauded 43-7. Man of the Match Ricki Sutcliffe sliced through two defenders and scored his fourth try of the game and his 10th in three games, a Scholey kick hit the post but it was all over as the referee blew his whistle Silloth 48-7 Penrith. Silloth 2nd team (The Sharks) played their first game of 2014 away to Wigton against an experienced Wigton Wizards side, Silloth won 93-7. Man of the Match was 17 year old captain Tommy Dixon who lead by example.

Silloth Tennis Club Junior Championship

Silloth Tennis Club held their annual under 8 and 9 Championships during the festive break with a few first time winners taking home the silverware.

The events were started during the summer months of 2003 and the trophies have the names of many fine tennis players and County Champions etched on them. Adding to those names on the under 8 cups are Ella

Thompson and Luke Eilbeck who triumphed over brother and sister Darci and Jackson Slack in their respective finals with Charlotte Harrison winning the consolation event.

In the under 9's it was Abigail Mossop and Yusuf Brooks who came out on top in a mixed singles event (runners up were Libby Millican and Luke Eilbeck) with Kirsty Whitfield taking the consolation. In the under 8 doubles Darci gained some revenge by winning the final with partner Sophie Hetherington against Charlotte Harrison and Kirsty Whitfield.

With good performances all round it was great to see many players making their competitive debuts, getting their feet on the ratings ladder and hopefully being bitten by the competitive bug.
